

By forcing their stations to display obvious partisanship just before the election, Sinclair Broadcasting is exemplifying the dangers of media monopolies. The content serves the public interest less and the controlling companies more. Since Sinclair uses the free public airwaves, and is blatantly bypassing the law to serve the public interest, it's the FCC's obligation to intervene. Please hold them accountable and reconsider their license renewal when it comes due. Our Democracy depends on it. Thank you.